Powerfully Purposed Transformation

Joe T. Green

Accepting God's Identity for You is Everything---Following Jesus into God's Kingdom---and surrendering to His Lordship Today---This is God's formula for changing mankind, revealing His will for your life, and winning the war for your soul.

Romans 12:2 KJV

(2) And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

English Prologue

This is not a new teaching, or even a teaching, although everyone learns as they travel. I am attempting to show the pathway God laid out for human beings in the Garden of Eden and the path Jesus took so we could follow Him back into God's presence as citizens in His Kingdom. If you are tired of boring lectures without power, life, or destiny?

,The Kingdom of God is here. The kingdom is still full of joy, peace

.and excitement in today's world

It is not God's future plan, but rather today's agenda. Therefore, the Lord is accepting volunteers to join the kingdom's goal of establishing the mindset of His kingdom in the hearts of believers today.

If you identify as a Christian, live with the hope of attaining Heaven, and believe you will be raptured out of the current cultural war, you have become a victim of the devil's schemes and a party to their success. He always wants you to delay accepting the things of God until it is too late for them to affect the world we live in today. Discover what Satan is stealing from you today.

Because Jesus has finished all things needed for life and Godliness, our family, city, state, country, and world's future depends upon our recognizing, believing, claiming, and living in all of the things of God today, not tomorrow.

God has established our identity

.as His child at the cross

A willing and obedient heart is all it takes to live, move, and have your being, identity, and destiny in God. Therefore, passionately strive to establish a true legacy for your children. Without any exaggeration, I can say, enter at the risk of being forever changed!

The Resurrected Jesus in You

Jesus was precise in His instructions to the disciples, and He repeated them four times in the gospels. I am sure this shows their importance to us.

Matthew 16:24-25 KJV

(24) Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

(25) For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it.

The Apostle Paul testified that this was a reality in his life with Christ.

Galatians 2:20 KJV

(20) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

Please make no mistakes about it. The cross has only one function: the death of the one carrying it. So, do you think Jesus wondered, "Why are they nailing me to this huge piece of wood?" But it is clear that He was acutely aware of the purpose of the cross and that they were going to murder Him.

The work of the cross in your life is to bring about your death also. Therefore, for Christ to live His life through you, we must voluntarily yield to the work of the cross.

Romans 6:6 KJV

(6) Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.

As God removed your old rebellious nature, He replaced it with His nature. Our spirit becomes a new creation in Christ Jesus. Unfortunately, when we accept Christ, we often still have personal issues in our souls that cover the presence of Christ in our lives. Therefore, others do not see Him in us as they should. That will even cause Him to seem far away from us. When we accept and live as a citizen in God's Kingdom, the Father will then prune or circumcise anything from our heart (mind) that does not resemble Christ until He shines forth from us.

The Holy Spirit will lead us to the circumstances allowing the Father to do His work. Then, when others can see Him under all conditions, you can have the same testimony as Paul's letter to the Galatians.

The development of patience within us might be an example of one of the works of the Father. How often are we impatient with others, on the road, at work, at home, in the supermarket, or in other places in our daily lives? Every time is an opportunity for God to do His job and for you to cooperate. We see Christ revealed in us when we show patience under all conditions. We shall know Him and see Him by His fruit in us.

God allows darkness to come into our lives to reveal the light of Christ within us. The darker it is, the easier it is to see even the tiniest light. Also, God allows this to cause us to reach for the light, Jesus.

Colossians 1:27 KJV

(27) To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

John 10:18 AMPC

(18) No one takes it away from Me. On the contrary, I lay it down voluntarily. [I put it from Myself.] I am authorized and have power to lay it down (to resign it) and I am authorized and have power to take it back again. These are the instructions (orders) which I have received [as My charge] from My Father.

Jesus tells us He has the power to lay down His life and the ability to take it up again. He was not speaking of His resurrection two thousand years ago because the Bible states, about a dozen times, that God raised Jesus from the dead. Therefore, Jesus must have been talking about another time He would exercise this power. I believe His ability was for such a day as this. He laid down His life in us while we were dead sinners, and the same power that raised Jesus from the dead is working in us to bring about our acceptance of our resurrection in Him.

2 Corinthians 4:17 KJV

(17) For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

1 John 3:2 KJV

(2) Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

When He reveals us spiritually for all to see, we will see our new, immortal, glorious bodies. We will know Him when we look at Him because we will be like Him, as He now appears, not as He appeared when He walked the earth long ago. Fortunately, while on the Isle of Patmos, the Apostle John saw the Lord in a vision as He looks now.

Revelation 1:13-16 KJV

(13) And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

(14) His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

(15) And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.

(16) And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedge sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.

That gives us a great picture of how we should look in the spirit realm. We are like him, for we shall see him as he is. That is the resurrected Jesus in us today.

Galatians 2:20 KJV

(20) I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.

If we truly believed these words, our attitudes would be very different. Our confidence would be much higher, our joy fuller, and our ministry would be much more powerful. But can we dare to believe, receive, and practice what Christ has and is doing for us? Or will we continue improving our behavior to impress Him and the congregation? Your actions will not be problematic if you genuinely believe, receive, and learn to exercise in this absolute reality. We have gone wrong by trying to develop this relationship with a behavior change. Instead, we should spend much time with Him maturing in our relationship and faith, which will change our behavior. When our soul chooses to sin, it is always a symptom of a problem in a citizen's life and reflects a problem in a love relationship.

1 Corinthians 15:58 KJV

(58) Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

2 Corinthians 4:17 KJV

(17) For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

1 Corinthians 15:49 KJV

(49) And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Prayer,

Father, we believe that you tell us that you will never forget the efforts of those who labor amongst us. The difficulties, burdens, and experiences of our lives and relationships can add to the eternal nature of God in us and will manifest as the weight of the glory of God that clothes us. Thus, we display the Kingdom of Heaven from within ourselves. Although we cannot yet see the manifestation of this activity, this part of our reward is working in us, causing us to bear the image of Jesus. we thank you for this great work and give you thanks every day for the progress you are making within us. In Jesus' name, amen.
