Powerfully Purposed Transformation

Joe T. Green

Accepting God's Identity for You is Everything---Following Jesus into God's Kingdom---and surrendering to His Lordship Today---This is God's formula for changing mankind, revealing His will for your life, and winning the war for your soul.

Romans 12:2 KJV

(2) And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

English Prologue

This is not a new teaching, or even a teaching, although everyone learns as they travel. I am attempting to show the pathway God laid out for human beings in the Garden of Eden and the path Jesus took so we could follow Him back into God's presence as citizens in His Kingdom. If you are tired of boring lectures without power, life, or destiny?

,The Kingdom of God is here. The kingdom is still full of joy, peace

.and excitement in today's world

.It is not God's future plan, but rather today's agenda

Therefore, the Lord is accepting volunteers to join the kingdom's goal of establishing the mindset of His kingdom in the hearts of believers today.

If you identify as a Christian, live with the hope of attaining Heaven, and believe you will be raptured out of the current cultural war, you have become a victim of the devil's schemes and a party to their success. He always wants you to delay accepting the things of God until it is too late for them to affect the world we live in today. Discover what Satan is stealing from you today.

Because Jesus has finished all things needed for life and Godliness, our family, city, state, country, and world's future depends upon our recognizing, believing, claiming, and living in all of the things of God today, not tomorrow.

God has established our identity

.as His child at the cross

A willing and obedient heart is all it takes to live, move, and have your being, identity, and destiny in God. Therefore, passionately strive to establish a true legacy for your children. Without any exaggeration, I can say, enter at the risk of being forever changed!

A King, Governor, and Kingdom

The Bible comprises two sections: the Old Testament and the New Testament. The Old Testament is also the constitution that God Himself wrote. He wrote it so the world might know the obligations of God to His people and of His people towards Him. It also describes the penalties for failing to meet our commitments to Him. The Abrahamic covenant bonded God to His people and His people to Him.

The New Testament is also the constitution for the Kingdom of God. It outlines the responsibilities of the king to His people and of the people to their king. It is a blood covenant, completed by Christ, as a sword pierced his side on the cross. It is also the last will and testament of God.

Ephesians 2:19 KJV

(19) Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God;

When we are born again and have the spirit of obedience given to us by Christ, we become citizens of another country called the Kingdom of God. We must repudiate and lose our citizenship in the kingdom of darkness as we become children of the light. That means we are not subject to its curses or its privileges. If we go back and claim the blessings of the law, we must also accept the curses. We cannot select what we choose or desire from the covenant. We are either in the covenant or not.

Because we are born the child of a king and His heirs, we are also kings and priests unto God. We become sons of God when we reach the maturity and time appointed by the Father. Also, we are born and have the spiritual DNA of a citizen of Heaven; therefore, we are citizens of Heaven here on earth.

The King's Manifesto

Every relationship and service level requires training, discipline, and growth to advance. We are born Kings and Priests. We are citizens and family members of the most outstanding, potent government in the history of the world. Jesus, the greatest and most powerful king in history, has given us everything we need for life and godliness. He intends to establish His kingdom as the ruling authority over the whole earth. He will do that by transforming the present people and rulers.

We find these promises written in the Constitution and backed by a blood covenant called the New Testament. God bases that constitution on the will of God, as shown by the life and death of Jesus. His death established this unchangeable document forever. Only citizens are entitled to and have rights in the kingdom established by Jesus. All others may know of the rights, but are not legal recipients of their benefits.

The Kingdom of God is not a religion of any kind. It is a spiritual government headed by the king, Jesus. As we accept Him in our hearts as our Savior, He saves us. As we receive Him in our hearts as our personal Lord, He owns us. When we accept Him in our hearts as our king, He rules us. Jesus, Father God, and the Holy Spirit come, settle in, and make their permanent home in our hearts. The Strong's concordance tells us that the definition of Heaven is God's abode. In other words, the presence of the rule of God in us establishes the reality of Heaven in us.

The Governor

God has given us the Holy Spirit as a governor in this colony of Heaven. He is to establish the culture of the Kingdom of Heaven in us by changing our way of thinking or renewing our minds. Jesus said, "Repent (change your thinking): for the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." I tell you, "Today, the Kingdom of God has come upon you." Now is the time to repent and believe the gospel's significance in our lives today.

All kingdom citizens are family members and live in a blood covenant with God. Every member of His family carries His spiritual DNA and has the name of the Father. There are many levels of relationship and service in the Kingdom of God, and all are open to whosoever wishes to advance. Babies, children, the mature, and the Sons of God. Also, Apostles, Prophets, Pastors, Evangelists, Teachers, and helpers. Included are Ambassadors of Christ, Sons of God, Kings, Priests unto God, and the Bride of Christ. Each is a destination, but not the final destiny of our lives. Christian is not on the list because that name and its prophetic future came from the world.

Every relationship and service level requires training, discipline, and growth to advance. We are born Kings and Priests unto God but must grow in wisdom and stature before man and God. That is the road to having power and authority in the kingdom. It is the road Jesus also had to travel and the blueprint for those who wish to follow Him.

God rules His kingdom with love, and submission to that rule is required to become a citizen of His kingdom.

Being the child of a king makes us kings. That makes Him the King of Kings. Our relationship with the Kingdom of God expresses the Kingdom of Heaven within and about us. That is the relationship He wants with us.

He translated us into His kingdom upon our new birth, but do we live as though we are there? Every domain has different laws. We are to follow the rules of our new kingdom, not the laws of the kingdom of darkness, where we are no longer citizens. We must follow the three commandments He has given for His new kingdom as provided to us in the New Covenant. Using God's love (agape), which the Holy Spirit spread abroad in our hearts, enables us to fulfill these laws. God seeks those who become obedient (worship) from the heart.

The endless vibrant flow of life attained only by continual connection to the Father through Jesus is ours. He is the source of love from the Father. In Jesus, we are deeply rooted and grounded in God's love, which changes us into His image. That establishes us as Heaven's colony and embassy, enabling us to act as His king and ambassador. Thus, as we rule and reign in our lives with God's love, we can genuinely represent King Jesus to the world.

We are to take the good news of this message to the world: "Repent (change your thinking). The Kingdom of God is within you, and the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand." But first, we must complete this mandate given by Jesus, and then the end will come.
